

Our goal is to provide our members with an intimate glimpse inside your sexuality and your relationship with your body. Therefore we want to ask you some intimate questions concerning your sexual history, likes and dislikes, masturbation habits and the role sex has played in your life.

Please answer honestly, and with as much detail as you want to provide. If it doesn't pertain to you, your opinion on the questions is still valuable, so please write your thoughts down. Don't want to answer a question? That's ok. Just write, N/A or not me. (But please don't skip questions that are relevant for you.) 😊

Take your time, our members really love getting to know this part of your life and love that it is done in your own hand-writing. We are looking for authenticity vs. fiction. We realize that these questions are very personal, and we really appreciate you taking the time to answer them.

Thanks!
